"...promoting quality education and the well-being of young children..."

The Michigan Association for the Education of Young Children is committed to improving the education and welfare of children from birth through age eight. MiAECY works for young children, their families, and early childhood professionals. MiAECY supports the professional development of its members through quality training, materials and services. More than 2,500 early childhood educators, professionals, and suppliers of children's services belong to MiAECY in 18 affiliate chapters and 3 local chapters.

Join other professionals

who are dedicated to providing quality education.

The mission of the Michigan Association for the Education of Young Children is to promote quality education and the well-being of young children through professional development and advocacy.

Professional Development

Annual conferences and institutes address your needs as a professional working with young children. Formal presentations and informal networking, valuable workshops and exhibits provide you with new ideas and contacts. Attendance at local, state and national AEYC conferences keeps you up-to-date. Through association publications and conferences, you gain knowledge and skills that enhance your potential for employment and promotion.

Beacon and Young Children

Stay current with news, events, legislation, and people around the state with MiAECY's newsletter, Beacon. Be informed about innovative classroom practices, issues in early childhood education, research, and reviews with Young Children, NAEYC's journal.

Legislative Updates

MiAECY keeps you informed of relevant legislation and actively advocates positions beneficial to young children, their families and early childhood professionals. Join the email alert network for the latest news.

T.E.A.C.H. Early Childhood® MICHIGAN

T.E.A.C.H. Early Childhood® MICHIGAN is a statewide scholarship program designed to help child care center directors, teachers, assistants and owners, and family child care providers meet their professional development goals while continuing their current employment in licensed or regulated early childhood settings.

Month of the Young Child®

Each April, Michigan communities, organizations and individuals recognize the needs of young children and their families through MOYC® activities. MiAECY invites you to join in this celebration.

Student Leadership Award

This scholarship provides academic and professional opportunities for an undergraduate student who is pursuing a bachelor's degree in either child development or elementary certification with the early childhood endorsement.

Grant Program

You can apply for a Jacquelyn Miller Endowment grant for up to $1,500 to enhance children's play environments or to support children and the arts.

Affiliations

You are encouraged to join AEYC through an affiliate chapter or local chapter to take advantage of local programs and benefits. When you do, you automatically become a member of the Michigan Association for the Education of Young Children and the National Association for the Education of Young Children.
