Jacquelyn H. Miller Endowment Grant

This grant is for members of Michigan AEYC (individuals or groups) for projects which focus on one of two general areas which were of particular interest to Jacki: Children and the Arts and Play Environments for Young Children.

Past winning applicants used this grant to create:

- Nature-based Outdoor Play Space
- Music Makes the World Go Round
- The Language of Clay: A Community Project
- Children's Outdoor Sound-Scape
- Exploring Art in Family Child Care
- From Garden to Table

"Music Makes the World Go Around"

"With the grant we were able to have someone come in and show our families, staff and children how to use different music equipment. This provided the children with various techniques on how to use different music equipment. We also were able to purchase outside music equipment to ensure music and rhythm is in everything."
