2022 Coaching Academy

December 14, 2022 - April 22, 2023
Hybrid

This in-depth experience of coaching principles, values, and tools that will help you understand yourself better and walk ANYONE through the change process. This series includes foundational coaching material that will help you communicate with anyone, collaborate with even the most challenging people, and understand how the brains of you and your coachee help and hinder the growth process. If you've ever struggled to help someone make a needed change, this experience is for you.

We've designed this series with you, the busy coach and leader, in mind. The format includes:

- 2 In-Person Sessions: designed to help you meet others, get support, learn in a positive environment, and practice coaching (the highest form of leadership) in a safe space.
December 14, 2022: Okemos Event Center, 2187 University Park Dr, Okemos, MI, 10:30am - 4:30pm
April 22, 2023: Amway Grand Plaza Hotel 187 Monroe Ave NW, Grand Rapids, MI 10:30am - 4:30pm
- 4 Zoom experiences: designed to report on wins, get support, practice skills, and share with the group; these are HIGHLY interactive sessions and MUST be attended with your brain, body, & spirit- so no driving in the car and zooming!
12/22/22, 1/9/22, 2/6/22, 3/6/22 6-8pm
- Teaching Videos: between our in-person sessions and zoom experiences, you'll have access to the content teaching videos.

This information can be aligned with ANY coaching model as it allows you to understand the iceberg under the water in a coaching session. Here are the topics you'll delve deeper into:

- TOGROW: a simple model you can use in 3 minutes, 30 minutes, or 3 hours
- Stick Chick & Coaching: learn what happens in your mind and the minds of your coachee when trying to help them make a change
- DISC Personalities & Coaching: coaching style and model don't matter if you don't understand how your personality and your coachees personality work together- or don't!
- 7 Levels of Awareness: Not everyone is aware of the same things. We'll talk about how to adjust when you work with someone in victim mentality all the way to mastery level.
- Peer Coaching: We'll share with you the value and importance of peer coaching and how to keep it incredibly simple!

Who is this Coaching Series for?

- Coaches (curriculum, learning and instruction, licensing, compliance, ANY KIND)
- Supervisors, Directors, anyone in a leadership position
- If you attended the past Leadership series, this is next level information.
- If you did NOT attend the past Leadership Series, no worries!
- Consultants, Licensing, Great Start to Quality, Others
- New to Experienced coaches

Who am I learning from?

Dr. Michelle Burkhard is the Owner of Grow By 1 and she is a Coach Doctor. She uses her extensive background in the education field to help educational coaches transform their leadership, relationship, and emotional pain into a servant for themselves and others. She is also a certified transformation consultant and helps individuals, groups, and systems through the change process. She is on a mission to help change the face of education to one of individualized empowerment and respect, at all levels. She is a highly requested speaker and trainer in 7 different time zones and recently celebrated episode #1,000 of her podcast Change Your Thinking, Change Your Life! When not studying or serving others, she enjoys actively engaging at home with her three teenagers, Josiah, Hannah, and Eliana.
